

Uniserv: Keeping U.S. Addresses Current

Uniserv based in Pforzheim, Germany, a provider of customer and address management solutions for several European countries, has extended its offerings. With the release of its postal validation system, post for mySAP.com, Uniserv now offers a country-specific version for the United States. The software checks, corrects and updates U.S. addresses based on official data from the United States Postal Service (USPS) and ensures that the data is updated regularly. post for mySAP.com is a cross-industry and cross-application system with SAP-certified integration.